

TAIP is proud to sponsor, Tanya Batt, a storyteller from New Zealand, for a fun, creative, energetic set of workshops for teachers on April 19, 2008 at ASIJ Early Learning Center, Roppogi Hills

Cost: TAIP Members: ¥2000/1 workshop only (either) or ¥3000 for the full day (both workshops).

Non Members: ¥5000/ 1 workshop or ¥7000 for the day (both workshops).

The Story Sack – Storytelling and story making 9:30am-12:00am

Long ago before time was caught and put in clocks and magic was easier to find there was story.

"You mean like a 'book story?'" No I mean like a story-story. Like one you might catch on a long line of truth, or like a cold from your great, great grandmother. Don't you remember some one telling you a story? Explore the ancient art of storytelling made new again. Tanya Batt will share her experiences of storytelling, story making and story sharing. Lots of love and laughter and happy ever afters.

Imagined Worlds – Process drama in early childhood 1:00-3:30

"Knowledge is limited. Imagination encircles the world." Einstein

Exercise your imagination using movement, music, storytelling & visual arts and learn how to lead children through interactive dramas that encourage co operation, communication, problem solving and reflection. Based on the work of the UK educator and humanist Dorothy Heathcote, Tanya Batt has taken these powerful methods and adapted them specifically for early childhood.

Tanya will also have a selection of her CD's and books for sale. (Catalog attached)

Workshop limited to 30 people -- sign up soon!
